

Company: Artisan Aesthetics Clinics

Position Available: Treating Doctor

Job Description: A unique opportunity for an experienced medical practitioner to join Artisan Aesthetic Clinics at our thriving Fortitude Valley clinic.

Artisan Aesthetic Clinics is seeking a registered medical practitioner who is well established in the skin health and wellness industry and experienced in cosmetic injectables, to join our Artisan Fortitude Valley clinic. This opportunity will see you taking over the care of our loyal and established client base, working collaboratively with a team of experienced cosmetic nurses and dermal therapists to deliver exceptional client outcomes and satisfaction.

With a range of treatments from cosmetic injectables, bio-stimulators, body contouring, skin tightening and technology-driven skin and regenerative treatments, the Artisan team support clients to achieve their skin health and wellness goals. With 20 premium clinics nationally and growing, supported by an ASX-listed company, Artisan is set to take skin health and wellness to the next level.

Please send your resume to careers@artisanclinics.com to discuss joining Artisan and being part of a well-established clinic and team, where we master the artistry of you™.
